

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Coroner's jury verdict "accidental" in death of Louis Gaspar, 19, 3732 Parnell av. Body washed up on beach at 51st st.

Heavy auto truck crushed an unknown boy to death near 945 N. Robey st.

Skidding cycle of policeman struck two women. Not serious.

Case of J. J. Harrison, private detective, 4738 Prairie av., caught by wife in woman's flat, continued. Said woman was detective.

State's Att'y filed 1,500 complaints against corporations before the board of review. Low taxes.

Immigration officials have arrested Theresa Miller, former dive owner of South Chicago. To be deported to France.

United Master Butchers' Ass'n to hold convention here next week.

Walter Cahldurn, 65, 1847 W. Monroe st., dead in bed. Heart disease.

Wm. O'Neill, 5, 7914 Muskegon av., missing. Followed patrol wagon.

Mrs. Rosa Mentzer, 1838 Grace st., suing for divorce. Says she scrubbed floors as hubby grew rich. Man indifferent to her needs.

John Dipocillo, 11, 762 Gilpen pl., crushed by 500-lb. beam. Dead. Watching unloading of wagon.

May Gurski, 5, 2146 Frankfort st., played with matches. Severely burned.

Otto Pitesck, 2732 S. Park av., cleaning vat in brewery. Fell in. Dead.

Margaret Ameoba, 10, 720 W. 25th pl., burned Wednesday playing near bonfire, dead.

Mrs. Mary Zalinski, 3030 W. 22d st., arrested for theft of $150 from St. Florian Church Parish House. Employed as maid.

Emil Houg and Chas. Anaele at Brand's brewery, turned hose on each other. Quarreled. Anaele stabbed in neck and chest. May die.

Evanston starting crusade against yells of peddlers.

Mrs. R. E. Graham, sued by Mrs. L. A. Wood ward for $50,000 for alienating husband's affections, denied charge.

Man dressed in uniform, representing himself as Serg't Campion, paid taxes on his property at Highwood, Ill., and placed mortgage for $200.

Judge Sabbath held court in sick room of Mrs. Mary Ries, 548 Eugenie Roswell Smith, "defective," who confessed killing of 4-year-old Hazel Weinstein on July 7, indicted.

Lieut. Joel Smith of Town Hall station retires tonight. Going to his estate in Virginia.

Body of Theodore Schultz, 3031 Indiana av., found in lake off 31st st. Charged with killing baby by overdose of paragonic. Arraigned for manslaughter. Released on bond.

Cases of two men accused of flirting with Anna Moore, 336 Garfield blvd., continued.

Home of Dr. W. G. Alexander, Evanston, robbed during absence. $115 in jewelry and $4 in cash taken.

City council meets this morning to adopt resolutions of regret for death of Ald. Bellfuss of 15th ward.

George Jacobson, Chicago, drowned in Foke Lake when fire in launch caused leap from boat.

O. F. Nelson, state factory inspector, said factory work in Chicago is safer now than ever before.

Private bank of Fleischman & Co., 1471 Milwaukee av., closed. Manager in New York. Liabilities $20,000.

Three boys selling Teddy Bears at cut prices arrested for theft from amusement park.

Sergeant Jas. Larney of Brighton Park station caught pig. Not claimed yet.

Thos. Reeves, arrested on complaint of wife, released. Mrs. Reeves neglected to prosecute disorderly charge.

252,432 women and children make clothing in factories.